Loss of Classified Document by Commercial Contractor

1. On 29 May 1959 [redacted] External Projects, Office of Communications (X-3152), reported that they are holding a memorandum receipt signed on 15 October 1958 by

2. The above document was furnished to [redacted] by the Office of Communication in connection with performance under Task Order #3 of Logistics Contract No. 605, which is now nearing completion. The records fail to show whether it was sent to [redacted] by mail or delivered personally by an Agency technical representative. [redacted] stated that he recently was at the company and requested return of the document. [redacted] was unable to locate same and stated that he thought he had given it back to either Mr. [redacted], Commo representatives. [redacted] reportedly have no recollection of receiving this missing document.

3. [redacted] will forward thermo-fax copies of the receipt to this Staff for investigation and retain possession of the original receipt. Appropriate investigation will be made by the undersigned at the firm during early June 1959.
